I'm Happy in The Army

Original for the "War Cry." By J. WHLIAMS, Toronto,

Tune-"There is rest for the Weary." Once I was the davil's soldier, Led to drink and every ain; Bless the Lord, those days are I've got Jesus Christ within.

сповов. And I'm happy in the Army, I'm happy in the Army; Yes, I'm happy in the Army, As the days roll by.

Ever fighting for my Seviour, In the Army's ranks I stand; I'm a true Salvation Soldier, Marching to the Heavenly land.

Since I met my precious Saviour, He has washed my pride away : I am free from earthly fachious Only Jesus I'll obey.

From all sin His blood has washed: I am walking in the light: Everywhere the Saviour loads me, I'll be true to God and right.

Now, dear comrades in the Army, Let us fight for Jesus more; Bye and bye we'll rest lo glory, When the war will all be n'er.
